Gentlemen,

I spoke with KAF this afternoon, and as a continuation of this process M is requesting that DS [Redacted] prepare a report at the conclusion of his meeting with the read out on the briefings provided, the status of the security inspection of the office, any vulnerabilities/deficiencies uncovered and discussed, recommended remediation, and any other findings to have on file for record. He has... I've reached out to Katherine Turner so she has my name, work number and personal cell number. I was in on the initial security briefings with David and her so she remembers me. As soon as we can get a firm time for Irena and to visit I we will do so.

Kim – please read through these e-mail exchanges and the attachments and let me know if it would be you or your office that would serve as the DS POC to interact with this law firm to allow them to store up to secret material. Thanks. Greg

As you are aware, we have been dealing with the turnover of former Secretary Clinton's e-mails. In the first tranche of e-mails there was one that was subsequently classified. We so advised Mrs. Clinton's lawyer who in turn advised us that he had received preservation requests from the Select Committee on Benghazi and the IGs from State and the IC and so needed to keep the e-mail.

The U/S write back (6/19/15) letter asking for a POC with whom Department could work to ensure that the e-mail (and any subsequently upgraded e-mails were being secured appropriately. The June 22 letter provides the name of the POC.

Please ask the appropriate DS subject matter experts to contact Ms. Turner to arrange for appointment to do a thorough security review to include physical security of area/safe in which document/electronic versions are being kept, who has access to the area/safe, do those individuals have appropriate clearances, when the electronic version is uploaded on a computer is it a stand-alone computer, when the disk/thumb drive is removed is any residual information deleted from the computer and any other appropriate questions.

This review/inspection needs to be carried out as soon as possible.

Please keep me in the loop re appointment timing and results of the inspection.

Thanks you.
